

iwin

FEB 2025

NEWSLETTER

It is my Turn

EMPOWERING AFGHAN WOMEN THROUGH ART

Excited to launch It Is My Turn, a year-long program empowering Afghan refugee women and girls through art, yoga, and storytelling.

In collaboration with Center for Empowering Refugees & Immigrants, ArtTogether, we're creating a space for healing and connection in Oakland. Interested in bringing this to your community? Reach out!

Wedding Expo

HOSTED BY NILOU WEDDING

For the first time in the Bay Area, we had the honor of joining Nilou Wedding for this special event. As a local non-profit, we were grateful for the opportunity to connect with the community.

 San Jose, CA

 February 3rd, 2025

Stitching Resilience Exhibit

Join us for a powerful exhibit to celebrate the women's history month, where each stitch speaks of resistance, hope, and the strength of women.

 San Francisco Public Library
 February 7 - April 30th

Full Moon Virtual Ritual

Beneath the light of the Full Moon, we gather in reflection, connection, and creation. Join us for our Full Moon Virtual Ritual. No experience needed—just bring your energy, your heart, and your voice.

 Virtual Event on Zoom
 February 12, 7:30 pm PST

Empowering Women Through Art

Poetry JAM

Alongside with Stitching Resilience Exhibit

An evening of powerful poetry honoring Women's History Month, interwoven with the Stitching Resilient exhibit. Hosted by Kim Shuck and Mahnaz Badihian, this event celebrates women's voices, strength, and creativity."

 San Francisco Public Library
 February 13, 6:00-7:30 pm

Board Member Recruiting

HAPPY HOUR VIRTUAL EVENT

Join us for a virtual happy hour to connect, unwind, and discover how you can make a meaningful impact by joining our board! Learn about our mission, meet like-minded change-makers, and explore ways to contribute your skills and passion.

 Virtual - Zoom
 February 27, 6:00-7:00 pm

Empowering Women Through Art

www.iwiniwin.org